

Queen of Avalon

Serenity

Don't you see my heart is dying
All my feelings cold as ice
Deep within the sword is rising
From the waters dark as night

Highest mountains, fields of snow
The God of Thunder chose the new born King

From the moonlight till the dawn
Against the never-ending storm
Hear them calling Arthur's name
Tribes of England reunite
March together side by side
For the Queen of Avalon

Make believe tales and old stories
Legendary Majesties
On the throne is carved your crest and
We will praise your glorious name

Highest mountains, fields of tears and snow
The God of Thunder chose the new born King

From the moonlight till the dawn
Against the never-ending storm
Hear them calling Arthur's name
Tribes of England reunite
March together side by side
For the Queen of Avalon

Betrayers, poor faithless
Kneel to the Crown
Forever believing
No reckless pride

From the moonlight till the dawn
Against the never-ending storm
Hear them calling Arthur's name
Tribes of England reunite
March together side by side
For the Queen of Avalon

From the moonlight till the dawn
Against the never-ending storm
Hear them calling Arthur's name
Tribes of England reunite
March together side by side
For the Queen of Avalon
