

Back In Time

Sergey Lazarev (Сергей Лазарев)

Somewhere in my mind
There's one thing to hide
Need you by my side
Closer, closer, baby

Friends still ask me why
Why I didn't try
Try to make it right
Sorry, sorry, baby

Back in time: where I could hold you tight
Where I could call you mine
Indeed, indeed
Back in time: where we could be just fine
Where love was so divine
And sweet
And sweet

Somewhere in my heart
Something falls apart
I regret our past
Sorry, sorry, baby

I can't get enough
Of your sweetest love
Why is all fun now?
Over, over, baby

Back in time: where I could hold you tight
Where I could call you mine
Indeed, indeed
Back in time: where we could be just fine
Where love was so divine
And sweet
And sweet

Somewhere in my mind
There's one thing to hide

Somewhere in my heart
Something falls apart

Back in time: where I could hold you tight
Where I could call you mine
Indeed, indeed
Back in time: where we could be just fine
Where love was so divine
And sweet
And sweet
