Breakthrough

Sergey Lazarev (Сергей Лазарев)

I've gotta break through to you
I've gotta break through to you

Tell me how can I face tomorrow
Without making love to you?
Did you read the letter that I wrote you?
How my heart broke in two
I've been spinning 'round for days
I don't know which road to turn
Baby, I've come undone, yeah

Am I flying or falling?
Running or crawling?
Baby, I gotta break through to you
(I gotta break through to you)
Words left unspoken
Dreams that are broken
Maybe it's the last thing I'll ever do
But I gotta break through to you
Yeah, I gotta break through

I can see the shadows moving
Are you alone tonight?
'Cause baby, I ain't done proving
I'm Mr. Right
Can you feel this is real?
You move inside of me
I'm finding it hard to breathe, breathe

Am I flying or falling?
Running or crawling?
Baby, I gotta break through to you
(I gotta break through to you)
Dreams that are broken
Maybe it's the last thing I'll ever do
But I gotta break through to you

Gotta break through, gotta break through
Gotta break through, gotta get to you
Gotta break through, gotta break through
Gotta break through, gotta get to you

Yeah, am I flying or falling?
Running or crawling?
Baby, I gotta break through to you
I gotta breath through, I gotta break through to you
Dreams that are broken
Maybe it's the last thing I'll ever do
But I gotta break through to you

Yeah baby, yeah baby
Gotta break through to you
(Gotta break through to you) Oh yeah
I need a breakthrough
(I gotta break through to you) Oh yeah

I need a breakthrough
(Gotta break through to you)
I gotta break through to you

Tell me how can I face tomorrow
Without making love to you?
