

Eye Of The Storm

Sergey Lazarev (Сергей Лазарев)

Sunshine on a rainy day
Keeps the dark away
From you and me
Moonlight on the summer night
Make me feel alright
Keeps me sane
I've made up my mind, it's so clear to me
I'm walking away from society
Back in my valley leave it all behind
To find the place where I'm happy deep inside

In the eye of the storm
It's quite, it's peaceful
Free from all this chaos
In the eye of the storm
I'm stronger, I'm emperor
I'll live my life
The way I want, and true

Sunshine in my rear view
As I wonder down
The dusty road
No line
As I camp at night
The silent beach
This is not me
I did all I can to save you girl
That foolish are through to end your world
Could you leave me here on my own
I'm all messed up and it's why I gotta find
The eye of the storm
It's quite, it's peaceful
Free from all this chaos
In the eye of the storm
I'm stronger, I'm emperor
I live my life
The way I want, and true
The way I want, and true

Living with out you
There'll be no sound
No more bright day
There's only gray without you
There'll be no air
There'll be no spring
No anything, with out you
It's not the same
There's only pain, nothing to gain
Without you
There'll be no love
There'll be no peace
No reason to be

In the eye of the storm

I'm stronger, I'm emperor
I live my life
The way I want, and true
The way I want, and true
