

Going Under

Sergey Lazarev (Сергей Лазарев)

Heart racing, mind stalling
Behaviour appalling
We are on the mission all for number one
So jaded, we're falling
No praying, it's boring
What's the point in thinking when it's done?

I can feel it getting closer
In a flash it will be over
Is it really worth the jackpot
That we're never gonna win?
Do you ever stop and wonder
When your heart speeding like thunder
Open up your eyes and you will see
The state we're in
State we're in

We're slowly going under
Going under, going under, going under, going under...
We're slowly going under
Going under, going under, going under, going under
We're slowly going under

I see it, believe me
You choose not to hear me
Burying your head beneath the broken ground
Quit sweating, enduring
No stressing, no fury
There's nothing to gain, no golden crown

I can feel it getting closer
In a flash it will be over
Is it really worth the jackpot
That we're never gonna win?
Do you ever stop and wonder
When your heart speeding like thunder
Open up your eyes and you will see
The state we're in
State we're in

We're slowly going under
Going under, going under, going under, going under...
We're slowly going under
Going under, going under, going under, going under
We're slowly going under

I need something new
There's nowhere to hide
What am I gonna do?
Gotta face the truth
Can't afford it
We're running away, no time to delay
'Cause I can feel it getting closer
In a flash it will be over
Is it really worth the jackpot
That we're never gonna win?
Do you ever stop and wonder

When your heart speeding like thunder
Open up your eyes and you will see
The state we're in
State we're in

We're slowly going under
Going under, going under, going under, going under...
We're slowly going under
Going under, going under, going under, going under
We're slowly going under
