

Warrior

Sergey Lazarev (Сергей Лазарев)

Another day in paradise
Just another chapter
In the story of my life
Another battle, another fight
Another reason for you to try

To pull me down in the water
Not this time, I'm smarter
So, don't even get me started
'Cause when the curtain is falling down
And the music is fading out

I turn it up a little bit louder
And push it a little bit harder
Like a warrior, like a warrior
I'm in this to win

I'm on the frontline and they're tryna break me
But I stay steady, no army can shake me
Like a warrior, like a warrior
I'm in this to win

I'm ready for a second round
I'm putting on the gloves
So, don't you dare to count me out
You go ahead, try and knock me down
Another reason for me to strike

Can't pull me down in the water
Not this time, I'm smarter
So, don't even get me started
'Cause when the curtain is falling down
And the music is fading out

I turn it up a little bit louder
And push it a little bit harder
Like a warrior, like a warrior
I'm in this to win

I'm on the frontline and they're tryna break me
But I stay steady, no army can shake me
Like a warrior, like a warrior
I'm in this to win

Another day in paradise
Just another chapter
In the story of my life

I turn it up a little bit louder
And push it a little bit harder
Like a warrior, like a warrior
I'm in this to win

I'm on the frontline and they're tryna break me
But I stay steady, no army can shake me
Like a warrior, like a warrior
I'm in this to win

I turn it up a little bit louder
And push it a little bit harder
Like a warrior, like a warrior
I'm in this to win
To win, yeah
