

Gone Forever

Sérgio Mendes

Gone forever
I sit alone for hours
Wondering what went wrong and who's to blame
I was led to see a black cloud
Pull across the sky
Wondering when it was that love began to die

Gone forever
Now gone but not forgotten
How could I forget the likes of you
Just a sigh to be could make imaginations mine
Just to think about you almost makes me cry

You are something to remember
Only lonely like the sun
Every morning still reminds me
Brings a tear that nearly blinds me
One more day to be blue
One more day of living without you

Gone forever
And all the fools have told me
Try to find a life with someone new
Share the pillow where a dream
Once took the time to write
Having known you I would never even try
