

Take This Love

Sérgio Mendes

I know what you're thinking
Your eyes give you away
We've been talking all night long
And there's nothing left to say
It's a mutual emotion
And nothing's standing in the way

And I got a feelin' baby
That this was meant to be
While you've been playing hard to get
I've waited patiently
And it just keeps getting harder
And there's a point of no return

Cos the heat is in the moment
And the moment's in your hands

Take this love
I want to give it all to you
Take this love
You know how long I've waited
I need a reason
A meaning in my life
So open up and take this love
