

About It

Serhat Durmus

Wake up in the morning where i catch myself
Thinking 'bout where you might be
Cannot stop reliving when you finally said goodbye
I know it's too late, even think about the Mistakes that we made can't apologize
I close my eyes, hope that the pain will go away

And I can't seem to forget about it
No this love just won't go away
Don't think I'll forget about it
And I can't seem to forget about it
No this love just won't go away
Don't think I'll forget about it

I call out to you
Call out for you

Reminisce the good times that we had
Those were the best days
Wishing we could go back
And change the past

But I know the truth
Baby, no matter what I do
You're not here
Still, I look for you
But I know the truth
Baby, no matter what I do
You're not here
Still, I look for you

But I know

And I can't seem to forget about it
Don't think I'll forget about it
And I can't seem to forget about it
Don't think I'll forget about it
