Serhat Durmus

I'm the only one left alive, inside my head tonight
And I can't sleep, I can't sleep, no
Maybe I let 'em take too much, give too much of myself, 'cause
I just want to be loved

I got nothing left, I'm taking all my chances
Shaking on the edge, I'm breaking my defenses
I, I
I think I need some help, but maybe that's a good thing
Get higher than myself, I'm switching up my scenery
I, I need to get far away

If paradise is a cliff, baby, I'll jump
If paradise is a cliff, baby, I'll jump
If paradise is a cliff, baby, I'll jump (I'll jump)
Straight into your arms (I'll jump)
Straight into your arms, ah

It's physical, emotional, the feeling, yeah yeah
I'm overthinking, crazy, on the brink, yeah yeah
So I'm comfortable, the space that I'm in
I wanna crawl out of my skin

Get my head out of my driver seat (yeah)
I won't let it get the best of me (yeah)
If you're paradise, baby, then let me jump in, 'cause
I just wanna be loved

I got nothing left, I'm taking all my chances
Shaking on the edge, I'm breaking my defenses
I (I), I (I)
I think I need some help, but maybe that's a good thing
Get higher than myself, I'm switching up my scenery
I, I need to get far away

If paradise is a cliff, baby, I'll jump (I'll jump)
If paradise is a cliff, baby, I'll jump (I'll jump, I'll jump)
If paradise is a cliff, baby, I'll jump (I'll jump)
Straight into your arms (I'll jump)
Straight into your arms, ah

I'll jump, straight into your arms
Straight into your arms, ah
