Empty

Serhat Durmus

Sunlight is bright
And then it get dark again
I chose it this time
'Cause the light isn't always my friend

I cry then I cry out
I lie then I lie awake
Just take me away now
Before I can feel my mistake

Drop my head in the waves
I'm waking up wasted
You got something to say
Well, baby, just say it

You know the hardest part is coming down empty
You're the one that saves me when it gets dark

Coming down empty

Gimme me your love
You're the one that saves me
Gimme your love
Coming down empty

I cry then I cry out
I lie then I lie awake
Just take me away now
Before I can feel my mistake

Drop my head in the waves
I'm waking up wasted
You got something to say
Well, baby, just say it

You know the hardest part is coming down empty
You're the one that saves me when it gets dark

Coming down empty

Drop my head in the waves
I'm waking up wasted
You got something to say
Well, baby, just say it

You know the hardest part is coming down empty
You're the one that saves me
