

Fallen Hero

Serious Black

I am the centre of the universe
I am your master and your preacher
No one is fit to hold a candle to me
You are nothing without me

Those were the words
Of a fallen hero
Made a misfit Rest In Peace
Now lay down in the dirt
His deeds erased from history

From hero to zero

I am the chosen one, I know it all
I know better than you ever will
I am the best, better than the rest
Now go and serve me

Those were the words
Of a fallen hero
Made a misfit Rest In Peace
Now lay down in the dirt
His deeds erased from history

So watch this tragic figure
Now rotting in the mud
Struck down by his own arrogance
Oh!

You all will fail without me
Do how I'm telling you
I won't accept resistance
Now!

The infantry is still alive
The grass roots will survive
Stronger than ever reviving

Remember the words
Of a fallen hero
Made a misfit Rest In Peace
Now lay down in the dirt
His deeds wiped out and never seen
Erased from history

From hero to zero
From hero to zero

El héroe está muerto
