

The Rough Dog

Serj Tankian

The dog once [?]
Hurts so much you won't be bored
And when your pen slides from your hand
It falls on your dog and that's when

Your dog tries to attack your leg
But you can't help but want to beg
And everyone around you smiles
But your dog keeps on biting your thighs

And we want a precious life fight
When we see the desperation
Animation, love, temptation won

The weakness
[?] to the bottom, [?] to the bottom, hold your back
Cannot remember, remember, remember
The words of a [?] god

Then your dog decides to go
To a stranger you don't know
He falls in love, yes! He's your dog
But you'll not judge him for that fault

And how many [?] must live
Upon this earth that we convict
And then the AC blasts your face
You think I am in such disgrace

And we want a precious life fight
When we see the desperation
Animation, love, temptation won
Love, won, love, won, love, on me
