I called all your ex-boyfriends
And asked them for a kiss
I needed to know
If they still carried your fragrance

Baby boy has their mouths
Their mouths contained mine
Their lips are sweet as yours
I hope your flavor stays in rhyme

Yes we all miss you
But since you won't come around
I'll enjoy this illegal love

Yes we all miss you
But since you won't come around
I'll enjoy this illegal love

I'll have all your ex-boyfriends
I love the way they kiss
I'm happy to know
We all carry your essence

Baby boy has their bodies
Their bodies coiled around mine
We sang your name in harmony
We sounded just fine

Yes we all miss you
But since you won't come around
I'll enjoy this illegal love

Yes we all miss you
But since you won't come around
I'll enjoy this illegal love

Having, better not to have
I guess it doesn't matter
I'm glad I have them

Having, better not to have
I guess it doesn't matter
I'm glad I have them

Having (yes we all miss you), better not to have
I guess it doesn't matter
I'm glad I have them
Having (yes we all miss you), better not to have
I guess it doesn't matter
I'm glad I have them

Yes we all miss you
But since you won't come around
