

Storms

Sertab Erener

Sometimes the things I want
Seem so far away
I push, I pull, I cry but every time I'm given what I need
Hands up to the sky
Not sure who sees my cries
I scream, I shout, I fight
But I forget to step aside

The storms in my heart late at night
Evaporate by morning light
The sun comes up, my fears go down and it's alright
The storms in my heart late at night
Evaporate by morning light
The sun comes up, my fears go down and it's alright

When I can't see past today
Can't see what I have
I beg, I plead, I try
To know inside this too shall pass

The storms in my heart late at night
Evaporate by morning light
The sun comes up, my fears go down and it's alright
The storms in my heart don't frighten me
'Cause I know they don't follow me
My faith comes up, my fear goes down and I'm alright

The storms in my heart late at night (Late at night)
Evaporate by morning light (Evaporate)
The sun comes up, my fears go down and it's alright
Storms in my heart don't frighten me (Frighten me)
'Cause I know they don't follow me (Follow me)
My faith comes up, my fear goes down and I'm alright
