

Cut Off

Set It Off

I'm a thrill-seeker, yeah, I'm crazy for real
I'm tightrope walker, stumble head over heels
You're a blown speaker buzzin' inside my ear
Just an overplayed song that people don't wanna hear

You make me socially awkward
The way you cook up the drama
So now I scan to the room to make an escape
'Cause you're my winter in summer
Was such a shock to discover
That feelin' safe would be my greatest mistake

You're cut off, so get lost
You're so strung out on my trust 'cause you abused it to death
You're cut off, so dream on
'Cause I'm thinking that I never wanna see you again

Made me so skeptical I can't trust myself
I'm a paranoid pilot flying hands off the wheel
When you're so reckless with deception, it's hell
So let's crash and burn quick so we forget how to feel

You make me socially awkward
The way you cook up the drama
So now I scan the room to make an escape
'Cause you're my winter in summer
My sleeping pill in my soda
A coma so deep that I'll never wake (Ha!)

You're cut off, so get lost
You're so strung out on my trust 'cause you abused it to death
You're cut off, so dream on
'Cause I'm thinking that I never wanna see you again
You're cut off, so get lost
You're so strung out on my trust 'cause you abused it to death
You're cut off, so dream on
'Cause I'm thinking that I never wanna see you again

Subconsciously oblivious
I never learn
You got me socially awkward (Subconsciously oblivious)
The way you cook up the drama
So now I scan the room to make an escape (I never learn)
'Cause you're my winter in summer
My sleeping pill in my soda (Subconsciously oblivious)
A coma so deep that I'll never wake up

You're fucking cut off, so get lost
You're so strung out on my trust 'cause you abused it to death
You're cut off, so dream on
'Cause I'm thinking that I never wanna see you again
You're cut off, so get lost
You're so strung out on my trust 'cause you abused it to death
You're cut off, so dream on
'Cause I'm thinking that I never wanna see you again
I never wanna see you again
