

For You Forever

Set It Off

(For you forever, for you forever, oh)
(For you forever, for you forever)

On the shoulder of the road
Colors in the blur
She's there to fight the highway
Diggin' into turns
Was diggin' out her soul
But now the pavement burns
And these signs don't point the right way

In the desert, a mirage of ecstasy
Falling for the pleasure
Sick of painting every nightmare as a dream
Wide awake, and she said

I won't wait for you forever, for you forever
So, don't you say it's for the better, it's for the better
Cause I can't take later than never, later than never, no
I won't wait for you forever
Forever, no
Forever

Holding out for hope
Was a losing hand to play
Somewhere in the fold
Got sucked into the long game

This casino, a mirage of ecstasy
Falling for the pleasure
Sick of painting every nightmare as a dream
Wide awake, and she said

I won't wait for you forever, for you forever
So, don't you say it's for the better, it's for the better
Cause I can't take later than never, later than never, no
I won't wait for you forever
Forever, no
Forever
No, no, no, no, no, yeah

Gotta give it up
'Fore he gives you up
Baby, trust your gut
Cause you know, you know
Does he give a fuck
Like you give a fuck?
Baby, trust your gut
Cause you know, you know

Say
I won't wait for you forever, for you forever
So, I won't wait for you forever
No!

I won't wait for you forever, for you forever

So, don't you say it's for the better, it's for the better
Cause I can't take later than never, later than never, no
Forever

Forever
Forever
Forever, no
Forever
Woo!
Won't wait for you forever
No, no, no
Forever
