

Doing Me

Seth Anthony

Living my life like a Rolling Stone

I had a dream I was fighting in my sleep
Couldn't throw a punch, I never felt so weak
I woke up with some coffee in the cup
Threw some water on my face just trying to sober up, quick
Yeah, every day is a hustle
Always felt lost like a piece to a puzzle
Came from the bottom, had to get it from the muscle
I ain't never back down when I had to throw them knuckles

Behind the beautiful things there's always some kind of pain
Don't judge before you know
You ain't in my shoes or down this road
I drove myself insane trying to escape
Forget the risk and just stand stall
'Cause life is tough, you're gonna take some falls

Living life like a Rolling Stone
Been on the road so long that it feels like home
I'll never give it up, I was out in the cold
And I'm always keep it real, I ain't selling my soul
A sucker on this road, chasing lonely dreams
Surrounded by people who aren't what they seem
And if there ain't no struggle then there ain't no strength
I'ma keep on moving and just doing me

Now it seems everyone has an opinion
But where the hell were you when I was living in the trenches
Wise man told me, boy, patience is the key
So I loaded up the truck and moved away from Fuckery
Wait, what, or you thought that I was finished
Get your popcorn, this is only the beginning
Fake people hate they don't wanna see you winning
If you're brave enough to start being man enough to finish

Life tried to tear me down, torn me inside now
I was living, I was out-of-control
I had to pump the brakes, I had to slow my roll
I had to feel the pain just so I could obtain
All the things that I needed to know
Now I'm living in the moment, let my best go

Living life like a Rolling Stone
Been on the road so long that it feels like home
I'll never give it up, I was out in the cold
And I'm always keep it real, I ain't selling my soul
A sucker on this road, chasing lonely dreams
Surrounded by people who aren't what they seem
And if there ain't no struggle then there ain't no strength
I'ma keep on moving and just doing me
