

Drunk Tonight

Seth Anthony

Another long shift, I been putting overtime
Swearing I'ma quit every day
Working like a dog out in the hot sun
For a quarter what the boss gets paid
So I stopped and got a cold beer, she hates it when I come here
So I went and bought a bouquet
A bucket of stems, that's all that's left
Rose petals thrown all over the place

So she threw my clothes outside, tryna start a bar fight
Screaming till she red in the face
Picture frames went flying, then she started crying
Said, "Get out", then she begged me to stay
I'm too old for these games now, I'm too real to pretend
Your lies are gonna catch up with ya in the end, well you win
I'm done living in hell with you
There's two sides to a story, so let's talk about you, yeah

Do this, do that, you did me wrong
I ain't never met a woman that could sit and bitch all day long
Tired as hell, yeah, I'm losing my mind
She says I drink too much as she pops a second bottle of wine
[?] in the field
And I'm tired of the bullshit you put me through, so fuck you
You said you'd leave, I better get that right
And since you love playing games, guess who's getting drunk tonight

Oh-oh, oh-oh
Guess who's getting drunk tonight
Oh-oh, oh-oh
Guess who's getting drunk tonight

Accusing me of always messing around
But every single night you got your phone upside down

Then you wonder why I'm drinking every day in this house, yeah

Do this, do that, you did me wrong
I ain't never met a woman that could sit and bitch all day long
Tired as hell, yeah, I'm losing my mind
She says I drink too much as she pops a second bottle of wine
[?] in the field
And I'm tired of the bullshit you put me through, so fuck you
You said you'd leave, I better get that right
And since you love playing games, guess who's getting drunk tonight

Guess who's getting drunk tonight
Guess who's getting drunk tonight

You drink your wine just to fill a void
I'm drinking whiskey just to kill your noise

Do this, do that, you did me wrong
I ain't never met a woman that could sit and bitch all day long
Tired as hell, yeah, I'm losing my mind
She says I drink too much as she pops a second bottle of wine
[?] in the field

And I'm tired of the bullshit you put me through, so fuck you
You said you'd leave, I better get that right
And since you love playing games, guess who's getting drunk tonight
