

Hurt

Seth Anthony

I begged you not to go, I know you had to leave
The sources in between [?] within my reach
We tried our best to stay but we ran our separate ways
Pretending that we're happy but we both know that it's fake

I know it wouldn't take long
I'm finally playing Drake songs, yeah
Don't recognize this playlist, algorithm turned to shit
All I hear is sad songs that remind me what I miss

I was going through my timeline, I found a picture of us
Reminiscing 'bout the times that we had [?]
I'm thinking I'm fine, or am I tripping on love?
But the truth is that it's killing me to tell ya that

I never meant to hurt you
I only meant to make you smile
The words I said were wrong, our time has come and gone
Now I'm here all alone
I never meant to hurt you, oh
I only meant to make you smile
The words I said were wrong, our time has come and gone
Now I'm here all alone

Living in the past

Is it too forward if I step to you and ask?
Would you consider even possibly taking me back?
Just forget it, I know that I'm stupid
I am a fool, maybe I'm clueless [?] Cupid

Now it's 4 AM but I ain't sleeping at night
I keep falling on the side of the bed, it's too late
Now I'm free-falling onto the ledge
To a little bit that I think we have left

I never meant to hurt you
I only meant to make you smile
The words I said were wrong, our time has come and gone
Now I'm here all alone
I never meant to hurt you, oh
I only meant to make you smile
The words I said were wrong, our time has come and gone
Now I'm here all alone

Living in the past
