

Insane

Seth Anthony

Alcohol, an eight ball
It's another night the Devil won
Yeah, him realize you heard it all
The man you are I can't become
The sun is up, they're laying down
Another line, another round
Ain't proud what I become

Now I'm texting girls tryna get you off my mind
Sipping this whiskey, wish I could rewind
All the bad that I done, all the pain that I caused Swear I didn't want it all

Lies on lies, lines of coke
'Round and 'round, I'm on a roll
I tried, I failed
Hearts are broke
My sorry don't work no more
Baby girl, it's all the same
There's no one left to place the blame
Last day, last to remain
'Cause I'm insane
Lord teaches in pain

It's 2 a.m. and I called you again
Feel like a fool 'cause you're laid up with him
Hopin' and wishin' one day things'll change
I'm addicted to pain

Lies on lies, lines of coke
'Round and 'round, I'm on a roll
I tried, I failed
Hearts are broke
My sorry don't work no more
Baby girl, it's all the same
There's no one left to place the blame
Last day, last to remain
'Cause I'm insane

Bottom line, bump in line
You can't be real and damn that's insane
Go in his lane

Lies on lies, lines of coke
'Round and 'round, I'm on a roll
I tried, I failed
Hearts are broke
My sorry don't work no more
Baby girl, it's all the same
There's no one left to place the blame
Last day, last to remain
'Cause I'm insane
