

Never Gonna Change

Seth Anthony

Made a little money, I ain't never gonna change
Still drinking Jim Beam, still wear them dirty jeans
Get up every morning, cuz them bills don't go away
Got something to say, then bubba say it to my face

Same dirt road just a different day
Still the same ol' problems but a different place
Same cold beer but a different case
Been around the world but can't find my way
Work til I bleed I got kids to feed
I refuse to fail and that's guaranteed
No smoke and mirrors you get what you see
Just a good ol' boy so don't tread on me

The way I was raised man you buy your first truck
And if that line gets crossed boy you better knuckle up
Drinking whiskey from the bottle, we ain't never used a cup
Still living the same damn way

Times change, people change, but not me
My hand's on my heart cuz these colors don't bleed

This is the land I love, you can't take this from me
From the city to the country, everybody raised southern
From Florida up to old crab creek
It's the home of the brave, it's the land of the free
It's a Patriots Pledge, you ain't changing me

Momma taught me manners, yes sir and no man
If you want clean money then you keep some dirty hands
Somebody needs help give the shirt up off your back
Say grace before we eat, you know that family's where its at
Still hit the same corner store, that's where I buy my smokes
And when times get tough, they'll still front you when you're broke

Times change, people change, but not me
My hand's on my heart cuz these colors don't bleed

This is the land I love, you can't take this from me
From the city to the country, everybody raised southern
From Florida up to old crab creek
It's the home of the brave, it's the land of the free
It's a Patriots Pledge, you ain't changing me

It's the land of the free
You ain't changing me

Times change, people change, but not me
My hand's on my heart cuz these colors don't bleed
