

Think & Drive

Seth Ennis

One thought leads to another shot in the dark Another swallow my pride and I'm wondering how you are
And it don't take much reminiscing till it's eating me out of n owhere
No it don't take much to get me there
I always get in my truck
Get up in my head
Feeling that buzz at 2AM
Cause you're lighting up my phone again
Making more than just my tires spin
And I'm always crossing blurred lines on the same two lane
Down a dead end road, end up at your place
I'll be hurting when the morning comes, but I ain't strong enou gh to give it up
I-I shouldn't think and drive but I-I always think and drive wh en I-I got you on my mind oh I-I shouldn't think and drive

There's three stop lights between your house and mine
But I could've turned around at least a thousand times
But it don't take reminiscing till it's eating me out of nowher e
No it don't take much to get me there
And I always get in my truck
Get up in my head
Feeling that buzz at 2AM
Cause your lighting up my phone again
Making more than just my tires spin
And I'm always crossing blurred lines on the same two lane
Down a dead end road end up at your place
I'll be hurting when the morning comes, but I ain't strong enou
gh to give it up
No I-I shouldn't think and drive but I-
I always think and drive when I-I got you on my mind oh I-I-I

Yeah I'm stone cold sober, but nowhere near over you
And I could pull off at this shoulder but every time I think it through

I always get in my truck
Get up in my head
Feeling that buzz at 2AM
Cause you're lighting up my phone again
Making more than just my tires spin
And I'm always walking through your door
You're pulling on my shirt
Remembering the burn, forgetting about the hurt
I'll feel it when the morning comes, but I ain't strong enough to give you up

I know I-I shouldn't think and drive but I-I- always think and drive when I-I got you on my mind oh I-I shouldn't think and drive
No...
I shouldn't think and drive
