

Farewell My Love

Seth Lakeman

Farewell my love I think not you less
My heart still beats for thee,
These empty arms still for your fair rest
Those eyes to gaze at me.
Don't pity me for she'll not stay,
She scorned my heart and fades away,
Farewell my love for all we've done,
By the setting of the sun.
Farewell my love of yesteryears,
We roll upon the tide
Tomorrow's day should lead the way and life begins tonight.
Don't pity me for I'm not done
She scorned my heart with the setting sun,
Farewell my love for all I've got,
I know I'll see you still
