

Spicks And Specks (Twitter Topics)

Seth Sentry

Ayy

Ladies and gentlemen, chicka check

This is my little Twitter topics for Spicks and Specks

Now mum, in case you don't know what Twitter meant

Twitter is a place for talking bullshit on the "internet"

Anatomically correct gingerbread

Yeah, probably don't give these out for Christmas gifts

Unless you want to scar the kids, just keep it simple

No one really likes it when their nibbles come with nipples

Are puppets evil? Are the muppets people?

Tony Abbott seems to be the best one to speak to

Man, I can't even cook water in my home

So the best recipe is just to order it by phone

Look, I was watching Doctor Who once by myself

When I saw a huntsman spider crawling round behind my couch

But I didn't even start crying or freaking out

I just calmly walked outside and set fire to my entire house

Mariah Carey's vocal range is so insane

Five octaves, and plus I heard she's got perfect key

But when I was in my early teens

Instead of hearing her perfect C's I was staring at her perfect

D's

The Olsen twins were wholesome then

And I was listening to Magic Dirt and I had longer hair

Look, the best advice I was ever given

Is don't freestyle on TV 'cause you might ruin your whole caree
