

Curse of the manifest

Setherial

Rebellious hatefueled heartsblood - burns my blackened soul Suphulrous body essence shelters me from cold
By the circles of the crimson fires - manifest in blood and stone
Carved as flames burn higher - in flesh and bones

I create my kingdom
I erect my ramparts

Where jackals hunt the dying - I am a wolf among sheep Where vultures bleed the crying - I come to reap
By the circles of the crimson fire - manifest in blood
and stone
Carved as flames burn higher, in ashes soul

The vice that burns within you - ablazed by the cursed of the manifest
The wrath that dwells among you - awaked by the curse
of the manifest

My words awaken the seed within your hearts
My will ignited the wicked hateful sparks
And as the blackened soil erupts and cracks in pain
My name is blasphemy - prepare to face my reign

This is the sunset of your world - now scorched and burned
This is the all-defying word - so hear my curse
This is the sunset of your world - now scorched and
burned
This is the all-defying word - so fear my curse
