

Comet

Sevdaliza

Darling, you're all of the sun
All of the lights
Always too much
So why is it that you're never enough
You're never enough?

Darling, the warmth that you spread
Is due to the cracks in your silhouette
Your shadow keeps them from the burn
Why don't they learn?

You're a comet
You're a comet
You're a comet
You're a comet

You're a comet
You're a comet
You're a comet
You're a comet

You're a comet
You're a comet
You're a comet
You're a comet
