Oh solitude, my home
I've lived too long
I've felt familiair
In stranger homes

In a dream
I held a pair of scales
I stood my ground
And weighed this world
In a dream

Oh solitude, my home
I've lived too long
I've felt familiair
In stranger homes

In a dream
I held a pair of scales
I stood my ground
And weighed this world
I stood my ground
And weighed this world

Oh solitude, my home
Oh solitude, my home
Oh solitude, my home
Oh solitude...

Oh solitude, my home
Oh solitude, my home
Oh solitude, my home
Oh solitude...
