Don't worry, I'm gone
I understand
It's the skin that changes the most
Believe it or not
I refer to you as my holy sufferin'

Don't worry, I'm gone
I understand
It's the skin that changes the most
Believe it or not
I refer to you as my holy suffering

After all of that, how is it possible
We're strangers again?
It's the love that you beg for
Leaves you for some reason

Don't worry, I'm gone
I understand
It's the skin that changes the most
Believe it or not
I refer to you as my holy sufferin'

After all of that, how is it possible
We're strangers again?
It's the love that you beg for
Leaves you for some reason

After all of that, how is it possible
We're strangers again?
It's the love that you beg for
Leaves you for some reason
