

Chasing The Mirage

Seven Kingdoms

Restless sleep, are you dreaming?
Far away, for a moment in time
Finally say goodbye
To this world were we're living

I cling to my sanity!
Chasing the Mirage
Would you believe, life is just a fantasy?

One by one we count the
Stars in the sky, shining in the night
All I see is galaxies exploding
In the blink of an eye

Captivate me like the sun
Be the fire that warms my heart again
They tried to lead me astray
Cold and hardened, scorned and broken

Open your eyes!
For a moment in time
Illusion their Coup de Gras
Mortality, your destiny!

One by one we count the
Stars in the sky, shining in the night
All I see is galaxies exploding
In the blink of an eye

I'm still alive!

One by one we count the
Stars in the sky, shining in the night
All I see is galaxies exploding
In the blink of an eye

I'm still alive!
