

Empty Eyes

Seven Kingdoms

Is your excuse your humanity?
Social disease, or insanity?
Empty Eyes will retreat and cower
Like dying flames

The door is wide open!
Fear's unspoken
There's no place for you here

You're burning up, you've had enough
And I am here still standing
You're burning up, I've seen enough!
There is no happy ending...

Is this what you want to hear?
Stealing time is worse than anything you fear
After everything you've dealt
Are you happy with yourself?
Are you happy with yourself?

The door is wide open!
Fear's unspoken
There's no place for you here

You're burning up, you've had enough
And I am here still standing
You're burning up, I've seen enough!
There is no happy ending...

I have to see to believe
Is this how it has to be?

You're burning up, you've had enough
And I am here still standing
You're burning up, I've seen enough!
There is no happy ending...
