

First Time

Seven Lions

In the darkness
All I see is you
You
When I'm lost
You lead me home
It's true
Oh

So don't stop now
I'm falling for you, I can't lie
I wanted you to stay
'Cause it's hard to run away

So don't stop now
I'm falling for you, I can't lie
I wanted you to stay
'Cause it's hard to run away
It's hard to run away

Oh, feels like we're falling for the first time
Oh, this is exactly what it feels like
When I can't go to sleep unless you're laying next to me
Oh, feels like we're falling for the first time

Feels like we're falling for the first time
Feels like we're falling for the first time

I, I knew that you were worth it
I, don't know if I deserve this
You, have given me a purpose
You, yeah you were always worth it
I, I know that you're worth it
I, don't know if I deserve this
You, have given me a purpose
You, yeah you were always worth it

So don't stop now
I'm falling for you, I can't lie
I wanted you to stay
'Cause it's hard to run away

So don't stop now
I'm falling for you, I can't lie
I wanted you to stay
'Cause it's hard to run away
It's hard to run away

Oh, feels like I'm falling for the first time
Oh, this is exactly what it feels like
When I can't go to sleep unless you're laying next to me
Feels like we're falling for the first time

Oh, feels like I'm falling for the first time
Oh, this is exactly what it feels like
When I can't go to sleep unless you're laying next to me
Feels like we're falling for the first time

When I can't go to sleep unless you're laying next to me
Feels like we're falling for the first time

Feels like we're falling for the first time
Feels like we're falling for the first time
