

Sunshine

Seven Lions

Been waiting for the sunshine
Been waiting for the sunshine
Been living under dark clouds
Now my mind is clear like a blue sky

Been waiting for the sunshine
Been waiting for the sunshine
Been living under dark clouds
Now my mind is clear like a blue sky

Heartbreak and a glass full of medicine
Don't feel anything, can't feel anything
Half way to the end, or to live again
Holding on to let go

When you're falling into pieces
And your head is overheating
Slowly drowning in the deep end - end
For so long
For too long

Been waiting for the sunshine
Been waiting for the sunshine
Been living under dark clouds
Now my mind is clear like a blue sky

Been waiting for the sunshine
Been waiting for the sunshine
Been living under dark clouds
Now my mind is clear like a blue sky

Been waiting for the sunshine
Been waiting for the sunshine
Been living under dark clouds
Now my mind is clear like a blue sky

Been waiting for the sunshine
Been waiting for the sunshine
Been living under dark clouds
Now my mind is clear like a blue sky

I waiting waiting for oh oh
I've been waiting for the sunshine
(Been waiting for the sunshine)
I've been waiting waiting for oh oh
I've been waiting for the blue skies

When you're falling into pieces
And your head is overheating
Slowly drowning in the deep end - end
For so long
For too long

Been waiting for the sunshine
Been waiting for the sunshine
Been living under dark clouds
Now my mind is clear like a blue sky

Been waiting for the sunshine
Been waiting for the sunshine
Been living under dark clouds
Now my mind is clear like a blue sky

Been waiting for the sunshine
Been waiting for the sunshine
Been living under dark clouds
Now my mind is clear like a blue sky

Been waiting for the sunshine
Been waiting for the sunshine

Been waiting for the sunshine
Been waiting for the sunshine

Been waiting for the sunshine
Been waiting for the sunshine
