

No Reason

Seven Nations

He can't believe his eyes
But with much surprise
Believes
She won't be back today
I thought I heard her say
Goodbye
And I believe, in nothing's wrong
Don't get me wrong
That's the way it should be
He's floating 'round the day
Won't come down no way
No reason
And I found out today
That maybe it's okay
To carry on this way
If you think it's good for you
And I believe, in a goodbye
Where no one will cry
That's the way it should be
