

Aligned with divinity

Seven Thorns

Visions we praise with pride
Visions concealed out of range for the foul
And we foresee that it's beyond
All human dreams

We're destined to defy
Conspiracies from the wicked side
We're destined to preserve our Freedom and democracy

Eternal vows we made with destiny
The distant signs at night make us believe

Legends granted to us
Legends delivered from ancient times
We'll make the prophecies come true
Eventually

See the bewildered race
Sadly deceived by the plans of the foul
But they will live to see
The moment of delivery

We'll create one great new mythology
Led by the fairness of divinity
And that's why

We are the hallowed heroes
Back to the light
We fight tonight
With divinity we're aligned
And that's why

We are the hallowed heroes
Back to the light
We fight tonight
With divinity we're aligned
And that's why

We are the people's saviours
For you we fight
We start tonight
With divinity we're aligned

That's why we know
Eternal vows we made with destiny
The distant signs at night make us believe

But overwhelmed by the dark
We turn within searching our soul
Embrace the sinister mind
Defying evil and strengthen hope
'Cause we know what we are
Know where we stand
Wicked temptations glancing aside
Born to conquer
Superior

Tell the whole lost world

We are the hallowed heroes
And that's why

We are the hallowed heroes

We are the people's saviours
For you we fight
We start tonight
