

Castaway

Seven Thorns

Darkness dwells all around
Seas of emptiness
I want to change direction!
I want to find the path
But all I grasp for slips away

Lost in the vacuum of dreams unfulfilled
I'm drifting on hopes that reality killed

A castaway
A man gone astray

But in the far distance
The stars are shining bright
They gleam of new beginnings
They glow of novel faith
And so I know, I'll rise again

Lost in the vacuum of dreams unfulfilled
I'm drifting on hopes that reality killed

Lost in the vacuum of dreams unfulfilled
I'm drifting on hopes that reality killed

A castaway
A man gone astray
