

Ethereal (I'm Still Possessed)

Seven Thorns

Lingering scents from a dream that is over
Keep me alive through the pain they call night

My bed is, my house is, my life is haunted

Shadows of the ethereal
I know you're gone but I'm still possessed
Madness, ever ethereal, just a phantom of my mind

Echoes of steps from a life gone forever
Tug at the strings where my heart used to dwell

My days are, my steps are, my breaths are haunted

Shadows of the ethereal
I know you're gone but I'm still possessed
Madness, ever ethereal, just a phantom of my mind

My days are, my steps are, my breaths are haunted

Shadows of the ethereal
I know you're gone but I'm still possessed
Madness, ever ethereal, just a phantom of my mind
