

Freedom Call

Seven Thorns

As a lightning they strike
No warning - their armies attack
In the dark of the night
Destroying it all
Our kingdom - our freedom
No mercy at all!

They attack our way
There is no option
We must fight to protect our lives
To fight or be slaves
No reason to choose
Destiny calls my name!

Through unknown lands
Across the sea
To face our destiny
We fight for victory
To the end and beyond!

Oh-oh-oh
We will fight 'till we die
But with glory we fall
Oh-oh-oh
You will hear our freedom call!

As we ride through the fields
The sun will enlighten
The banners that carry our names
We're soldiers of steel
Defenders of valor
Through all eternity!

A cry in the wind
Our enemies flee
By the sound of a glorious call
With faith in our hearts
We fight for our vengeance
And freedom for all!

Hear our freedom
Hear our freedom call!
