

Symphony of Shadows

Seven Thorns

Another step into the dark
Allow my show to seduce you
Behind the veil, as puppeteer
I play my strings

The music, the movement
An art of ancient maestros
Enticing, composing
The symphony of shadows
Brings your soul to me
To be devoured eternally

The beating pulse, the tasteful flow
A broken cord still vibrating
Reach for my hand and join me in
The dance macabre

The music, the movement
An art of ancient maestros
Enticing, composing
The symphony of shadows
Brings your soul to me
To be devoured eternally

Notes of pain, so soothing for my ears
Evil spins its melody of fears
Can you hear it?

"All the world's a stage", before you know
There will be time for the curtain
Red velvet seeping from your veins
Herald its call

The music, the movement
An art of ancient maestros
Enticing, composing
The symphony of shadows
Brings your soul to me
To be devoured eternally
