

Self Esteem

Seven Wiser

You took the words right out of my mouth.
Dig a hole right through my head.
You would do anything for me.
You smacked my face down to the floor,
Kicked me screaming you're a whore.
Left me striped of my self-esteem.

I don't like it.
What you've made me in
And everything's in black and white.
I still see it,
From in your eyes.
I don't like it.

I won't change me for anyone.
Don't like you callin' me what you will.
You turn me down,
You turn me in.
Don't return any of my calls,
You don't even know that I'm alive.
Left me striped of my self-esteem.

I don't like it.
What you've made me in
And everything's in black and white.
I still see it,
From in your eyes.
I don't like it.
