

Xiled to Infinity and One

Seven Witches

Now you're walking by the lake
Thinking of the millions who are crying
For heaven's sakes
Now you're exiled to infinity

Can't you feel the tension
As it burns me up inside
It's just a feeling
That I have to scream out loud

You're banished from your country
You're banished from your family
Kicked out of religion
And your holy land

Awakened giant fear's for real
Now you'll get it, mass appeal
There's nowhere to hide, nowhere to run
And now you're exiled to infinity

What you fear as it eats you up inside
To look over your shoulder
No matter where you go

You're banished from your country
You're banished from your family
You're kicked out of religion
And your holy land

Awakened giant fear's for real
Now you'll get it, mass appeal
There's nowhere to hide, nowhere to run
And now you're exiled
Awakened giant fear's for real
Now you'll get it, mass appeal
There's nowhere to hide, nowhere to run
And now you're exiled
Exiled to infinity and one
Exiled to infinity and one
Exiled to infinity and one
Exiled to infinity and one

Now you're standing alone
Watching the future turn into the past
There's no turning back
Now you're exiled to infinity and one

Awakened giant fear's for real
Now you'll get it, mass appeal
There's nowhere to hide, nowhere to run
And now you're exiled
Exiled to infinity and one
Exiled to infinity and one

Exiled to infinity and one
Exiled to infinity and one
