

Desperation

Sevendust

Whoa, I wanna be insane
I wanna show the world
I wanna show them all the shit to change
Some slow me Down, so I cant turn the page
So everyone can know we're all the same
No matter who's to blame
So turn you're fucking head around

Me on my knees, Feeling lost in desperation
And I'm longing to be free
I'm here, begging please
Saving me from the isolation
Somewhere I can finally breathe
I can breathe

Run around the truth again
You love for wasted time
You lie to cover all your shit again
Somebody slow me down
So you can see me here
You know I've hear a thousand times
And you do is lie
So turn your fucking head around

Me on my knees, Feeling lost in desperation
And I'm longing to be free
I'm here, begging please
Saving me from the isolation
Somewhere I can finally breathe
I can breathe

Someone show me you can reach down low
I'm sinking below here
