

The Wait

Sevendust

I'm lost inside a dream, alone
I'm hurt when all is lost
I smile when I have grown
You save

I've waited here so long
To comfort you and help
To save you from your hell
I pray

The page will turn
A hand pull away
Let it go, let it go,
Close the door and let it be
Out time will come, forever is a day
Let it go, let it go,
And close your eyes and find a dream
As seconds burn, For now, we'll wait
Send a message when you're home

Watch with lovin' eyes
So you're never all alone
You're safe

If there's forgiveness in our soul
Then, God, I need it here
To heal the wounds we tear
Today

The page will turn
A hand pulls away
Let it go, let it go,
Close the door and let it be
Our time will come, forever there's a day
Let it go, let it go,
And close your eyes and find a dream
As seconds burn. For now, we'll wait

The page will turn
A hand pulls away
Let it go, let it go,
Close the door and let it be
Our time will come, forever there's a day
Let it go, let it go,
And close your eyes and find a dream
As seconds burn. For now, we'll wait

I can't wait no more
