It's still a boring morning
(Far away so far away far away so far away)
The distance between me and you has no progress
So far away (far away so far away)
Do you still think of me as the person before?
In your small eyes,
I'm probably still a kid
This isn't the first time so what can I do?
I can't get over
How you laugh in front of me
I can't just stay still

I wanna be your morning baby
From now on, be alright
Spend it together, morning baby
I want you to be my night
Everything you think of
Will become all of me
Look at me and be my lady
You're my twenties

Don't try to brush past it like it's nothing
If you want me yeah if you want me
I can give you my everything
If I'm in your heart

Without anyone knowing
I have changed
It's mixed up baby
I'm mixed up into you lady
I didn't know I'd be like this
Because it was always just a what if (you're oh)

Do you still think of me as the person before?
In your small eyes,
I'm probably still a kid
This isn't the first time so what can I do?
I can't get over
How you laugh in front of me
I can't just stay still

I wanna be your morning baby
From now on, be alright
Spend it together, morning baby
I want you to be my night
Everything you think of
Will become all of me
Look at me and be my lady
You're my twenties

When you look at me, you're so beautiful
I want to tell you
All of you that I see
I want to cherish it
Just come to me
I want you to want me baby

I wanna be your morning baby
From now on, be alright (until always)
I'll show you how
I only think of you

Don't try to brush past it like it's nothing
If you want me yeah if you want me
I can give you my everything
If I'm in your heart
