Keep up we gotta step on the accelerator
Inside the hot engine we gotta keep running
So that light shining on SEVENTEEN doesn't go off
Because our studio lights goes on everyday

You can only understand if you stand on your head
We still haven't showed half of what we got
Eh eh eh
Hold my hand and let's go to another world
Follow follow follow follow follow follow me

Everything happens as we want, one and two rockets
We'll blast them at the very and like a flare
Every day, everything gets bigger without a break
(Grow bigger yeah)
Our tomorrow can't be stopped
Change up

We change up change up change up
We change up change up change up

We change up change up change up
We change up change up change up

What kind of feel, at what place?
We'll blast them at the very end like a flare
We change up change up change up
We change up change up change up

It's the same song, right?
Your emotions don't change, right?
You've come to the right song, this song right?
Even when we scribble, led by our unconsciously

You can only understand if you stand on your head
We still haven't showed half of what we got
Yeah yeah yeah
Hold my hand and let's go to another world
Follow follow follow follow follow follow me
