Give me your, give me your love, love cloud
Give me your, give me your
Give me your love, love cloud

Warm coffee in a cup made of clouds
With butterfly wings (I look for) your breath
This is a secret paradise, a forest in the sky for you
I can't lose the precious you, not even for a second
Woo yeah, yeah, yeah

Even the shadow casted on the winter of my heart
Is covered in five different colored paints
Every day the miracles continue eternally
And here there's always a fine summer vibe
Dara la-la-la-la, let's all record every single hum

If you were to fall to the ground from here
Even if that is the first time we met
We could immediately recognize each other

Give me your, give me your
Give me your, give me your love, love cloud
Give me your, give me your
Give me your love, love cloud
Riding the clouds to the sky, drive
Look up there
Give me your, give me your
Give me your love, love cloud

A heaven out in space
Our own heaven
Give me your, give me your
Give me your, give me your love, love cloud
Give me your give me your
Give me your love, love cloud

As what shine shines
Let's watch a pair of bubble pop
As you wish, cooking love
On the dish there's an unknown ecstasy, eh-eh
With exclamations overflowing, eh-eh-oh-eh
I can't lose the precious you, not even for a second
Woo yeah, yeah, yeah

Half of the sky is a blue galaxy
And the rest is glowing with the sunset
Every day the miracles continue eternally
Here it's always me and you on a summer night
Dara la-la-la-la, let's all record every single hum

If you were to fall to the ground from here
Even if that is the first time we met
