Seventh Day Slumber

I had to lose it all to come to my senses
And see how far I'd run
Now I can clearly see
It was me, not You
I was the one who had moved
Just when I thought I was all out of chances

You were the one who always came running
When all my world had come undone
You were the one bringing my healing
with open arms You call me son
Deep in the valley You were still calling
Deep in my heart I heard the sound
All of Your grace for all of my failure
I was so lost, now I'm found

Though I have regret
You always remind me
Your grace can't be out run
Oh when You look at me
It's not my shame you see
All my stains washed away
I am new, I am changed

You were the one who always came running
When all my world had come undone
You were the one bringing my healing
with open arms You call me son
Deep in the valley You were still calling
Deep in my heart I heard the sound
All of Your grace for all of my failure
I was so lost, now I'm found

So I'll cherish the old rugged Cross
Till my trophies at last I lay down
I will cling to the old rugged cross
And exchange it someday for a crown

You were the one who always came running
When all my world had come undone
You were the one bringing my healing
with open arms You call me son
Deep in the valley You were still calling
Deep in my heart I heard the sound
All of Your grace for all of my failure
I was so lost, now I'm found
Now I'm found
Now I'm found
