

I want to believe in something

Seventh Day Slumber

"I Want to Believe in Something"

Well I'm living with these old lies
And I'm stuck back here in yesterday
Keep your head up it'll get better
That's all I hear but I'm still drifting away

I said myself for winds of fortune
Well I'm sorry but there's no end today
And body's getting tired
Guess I'll kill myself and ease the pain

I cannot take another moment
Do I just lay back be crucified?

I want to believe in something
Man I feel like I've just wasted away
I gotta believe in something
Oh... before I'm dead

Man I've traveled every highway
Now just can't seem to find the one that's right
And I've burned that bridge behind
I want my sanity, I just want my piece of mind

I cannot take another moment
Do I just lay back be crucified?

I want to believe in something
Man I feel like I've just wasted away
I gotta believe in something
Oh... before I'm dead
