

My Last Words

Seventh Day Slumber

If I had one breath what would I say
If there was just one life what would it be
Would I question why or let my faith believe
I've spent so much time caring what they said
I passed You by, You were never left
So here I am, won't You speak through me

Let my last words be a melody
To the tune in which my heart beats for You
And this place I stand wasn't the working of my hand
I was carried here only by the blood
I will always sing Your praise
I know Amazing Grace
Will be my last words

There was a time when I was losing faith
I lost myself, I even lost my way
But here I am standing in Your grace
Jesus speak through me

Let my last words be a melody
To the tune in which my heart beats for You
And this place I stand wasn't the working of my hand
I was carried here only by the blood
I will always sing Your praise
I know Amazing Grace
Will be my last words
(Let my last words be...)

Through all my days, Lord, I would sing
With all my heart, with everything
Through all my days, Lord, I would sing
Of Your love
Through all my days, Lord, I would sing
With all my heart, with everything
Through all my days, Lord, I would sing
Of Your love

Let my last words be a melody...

Let my last words be a melody
To the tune in which my heart beats for You
And this place I stand wasn't the working of my hand
I was carried here only by the blood
I will always sing Your praise
I know Amazing Grace
Will be my last words
(Let my last words be...)
My last words
(Let my last words be...)
Will be my last words
