

Nothing To Lose

Seventh Day Slumber

It's such a lie
But the words keep ringing in my ears tonight
Though all I want is to be someone else
Undone
Lost in these thoughts and feeling all alone

This has to be the last time I feel this way

So hollow
Unwanted
Please save me from the dark
I'll sever whatever
Separates me from your arms
Waiting one more day is one day too late
God I'm holding onto you
I've got nothing to lose

It's such a lie
But I've heard it so much it feels like I can't deny
I'm worthless, I'm sick, I'm never gonna be enough for you
I'm done
But I won't let it end like all of the times before

This has to be the last time I feel this way

So hollow
Unwanted
Please save me from the dark
I'll sever whatever
Separates me from your arms
Waiting one more day is one day too late
God I'm holding onto you
I've got nothing to lose

This time I'm drowning inside
The waves of your love heal me
You heal me
No, they can't break me
This pain won't end me

So hollow
Unwanted
Please save me from the dark
I'll sever whatever
Waiting one more day is one day too late
God I'm holding onto you
I've got nothing to lose
